AkiDwA Background, Vision, Mission and values

Established in 2001 AkiDwA (Swahili for sisterhood) is a national network of migrant women living in Ireland.

AkiDwA Vision is a just society where there is equal opportunity and equal access to resources in all aspects of society: social, cultural, economic, civic and political.

AkiDwA Mission is to promote equality and justice for migrant women living in Ireland

AkiDwA values are-

- ❑ Respect for peoples dignity. We believe in a non-judgemental approach, which respects the dignity of all the people we engage with, staff, volunteers, members, partners and the general public.
- ❑ Integrity and Honesty. We believe that all our work should be undertaken with integrity, openness, honesty and professionalism.
- ❑ A learning organisation. We believe in open mindedness and curiosity and will continue to open our organisation to learning while keeping our passion and enthusiasm for the work..
- ❑ Empowerment. We believe our work should empower people, assisting them move from dependency to independence.
- ❑ Solidarity and Partnership. We believe in a partnership approach which facilitates solidarity between people, between migrant communities and between Irish and migrant communities.
- ❑ Accountability and transparency. We believe we should be responsible to each other and to the people and organisations with whom we engage.
- ❑ Equality and Justice. We believe that there can be an equal and just society and all our work will be underpinned by the promotion of justice and equality for migrant women in Irish society
- ❑ Participation. We believe in the principle of participation.
