Akina Dada wa Africa (AKiDwA; Swahili for sisterhood) is an authoritative, minority ethnic-led national network of African and migrant women living in Ireland. The non-governmental organisation with charitable status was established in August 2001 by a group of African women to address the needs of an expanding population of African and migrant women resident in Ireland. AKiDwA vision is a just society where there is equal opportunity and equal access to resources in all aspects of society, social, cultural, economic, civic, and political. AKiDwA Mission is to promote equality and justice for migrant woman living in Ireland.
